

MULTI-HAZARD EMERGENCY PLANNING FOR SCHOOLS COURSE (G-364)

NO. OF OPENINGS: 40

ALBANY COUNTY

2 - 1/2 DAYS

MARCH 20-22, 2018

CAPITAL DISTRICT

ANNOUNCED: JANUARY 24, 2018

Description:

This 2-1/2 day course provides school safety teams with the knowledge, skills, and tools needed to refine or develop an all-hazards school Emergency Response Plan (ERP) that meets NYS regulatory mandates and to identify how to train and exercise the school ERP.

Participants will learn how to develop a multi-hazard ERP that engages the whole community. Using the newly mandated NYS Guide to School ERP, school team members will learn about the NYS Legislative and Regulatory Requirements, how to develop their Basic Plan, Annexes and how to build useful Appendices that can be used during a critical incident response. Critical to successful planning is providing training and exercise to improve your ERP. In addition to meeting the NYS standards for preparation, this course follows the guidance set forth in the FEMA Comprehensive Preparedness Guide (CPG 101) and is consistent with national response protocols.

Objectives:

Review, develop, and enhance the components of the school ERP.

Describe the process used to conduct assessments.

Identify how to train and exercise their school ERP.
